

ENTEPE INTERNAL MEETING

C-Notes

03-05 July 2014

Budapest, Hungary

Saturday, 05 July 2014

A brief report on ENTEPE activities

Information about the EU Policies

Presentation by Thomas Pritzkow at the EDITE Conference.

- The group agreed to include Thomas Pritzkow on the ENTEPE mailing list and also expressed gratitude for his support and anticipated assistance in future activities;
- In the same context, members agreed to nominate Liesbeth Hens to represent ENTEPE at the EU Work Group.

Latest developments in policies relating to teacher education systems

All participants at the meeting presented a short report relating to the latest developments in TE policies in their respective countries.

EDITE Conference debriefing

- ENTEPE members have been invited to disseminate information about EDITE among ENTEPE university representatives to promote the EDITE PhD program among interested students.

Preparing teachers to enhance learning in multilingual and multicultural school contexts

- The group very much appreciated Ursula Uzerli's decision to deal with this topic from the practical perspective; she will be kindly asked to resend the questionnaire to all members in anticipation of new contributions as soon as possible;
- On Mojca Peček's proposal the next ENTEPE event will take place in Ljubljana as a European Seminar on preparing teachers to enhance learning in multilingual and multicultural school context. The proposed date for this event is February 2015;
- There was a proposal to extend the invitation to join this event to the regional Balkans countries, such as Croatia, Serbia and Bosnia-Herzegovina;

- Members agreed that after Ljubljana Seminar a new editorial project may be considered (that is, a new ENTEP volume published under the ENTEP auspice on this specific topic and including all papers presented at the Seminar).

ENTEPE Editorial Project (Mojca, Michael & Romita - short report)

- The Coordinator reported that this project was at a very advanced stage; it was expected to be completed next week after receiving Malgorzata Sekulowicz's article proposal (anticipated deadline the first week of July);
- The linguistic validation process has been completed and the editing process, except the 'Introduction', is almost completed;
- The volume also includes a trans-national analysis produced by Alexandru Strunga, PhD assistant at UB.

New ENTEPE Coordinator

- The ENTEPE group adopted the proposal to appoint Prof Mojca Peček of the University of Ljubljana as the new ENTEPE Coordinator. Starting from next week, the former Coordinator will support and assist the new one in learning the specific aspects and tasks of this position;
- The new coordinator will overlook the process of analyzing and improving the ENTEPE procedures and also select and seek approval for new ENTEPE topics and areas of interest.

New areas of interest for ENTEPE future activities

- The group has agreed on launching a survey of the ENTEPE new interest's areas (this survey will start in autumn via e-mail and will be analyzed in detail and approved during the next meeting in Ljubljana 2015);
- As a part of the exercise the group has proposed to kindly ask Liesbeth Hens to support the new Coordinator on developing this initiative, designing and administrating the Survey among ENTEPE members; a very important purpose of this action is to improve ENTEPE internal procedures and to propose new areas of interest in TE policies, research and development.
